Item 2.02 Results of Operations and Financial Condition

On November 12, 2013, Eastman Kodak Company issued a press release describing its financial results for the third quarter ended September 30, 2013. A copy of the press release is attached as Exhibit (99.1) to this report.

Within the Company's third quarter press release, the Company makes reference to the non-GAAP financial measures of net loss excluding reorganization items and discontinued operations; operational EBITDA and operational EBITDA excluding fresh start accounting adjustments which have directly comparable GAAP financial measures.

The Company believes that these non-GAAP measures represent important internal measures of performance. Accordingly they are provided to give the same financial data that management uses with the belief that this information will assist the users of it in properly assessing the underlying performance of the Company. Whenever such information is presented, the Company has complied with the provisions of the rules under Regulation G and Item 2.02 of Form 8-K. In addition to the reason described above, the Company's management believes that the presentation of the non-GAAP financial measures allows the user of the information to assess the results on a more comparable basis.

Kodak Shows Continuing Improvement in Third Quarter Results

- Results demonstrate momentum upon emergence from Chapter 11.
- Third quarter net income (loss) improved from $(312) million in 2012 to $1.99 billion in 2013. Excluding reorganization items and discontinued operations, the net loss for the third quarter of 2013 was $155 million.
- Operational EBITDA excluding accounting adjustments improved in the third quarter by $53 million from the prioryear quarter and by $279 million for the first nine months versus the same period in 2012.
- Favorable product/price mix in both business segments Digital Printing & Enterprise and Graphics, Entertainment & Commercial Films contributed to an eight percentage point improvement in year-over-year gross profit for the quarter, confirming the company's strategy of focus on profitability.
- Strong liquidity; ended quarter with $839 million cash and debt of $679 million.

ROCHESTER, N.Y.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--November 12, 2013--Eastman Kodak Company (NYSE:KODK) today announced net income for the third quarter of $1.99 billion (combining net income for the period July 1, 2013, through August 31, 2013, of the "predecessor" company of $2.01 billion, and net loss for the period September 1, 2013, through September 30, 2013, of the "successor" company of $18 million). Excluding reorganization items and discontinued operations, the net loss for the third quarter of 2013 was $155 million.

Third-quarter Operational EBITDA (see footnote 4 for definition) was $30 million, excluding the recognition of $27 million in non-cash inventory and deferred revenue adjustments from fresh-start accounting. Effective September 1, 2013, Kodak adopted fresh-start accounting upon its emergence from bankruptcy. Therefore, the results presented below reflect the combined predecessor/successor financial results.

Table 1 – Kodak Earnings Summary (condensed)

Millions of dollars	3Q 2013 ¹		¹ 3Q 2012		First Nine Months 2013 ²		First Nine Months 2012
Sales and other operating revenues	$	563	$	660	$	1,740	$	1,980
Net income (loss) ³		1,989		(312)		2,048		(977)
Operational EBITDA ⁴		3		(23)		87		(165)
Operational EBITDA excluding fresh-start accounting adjustments		30		(23)		114		(165)

As of September 30, the company's financial position reflected approximately $839 million of cash and cash equivalents and debt of $679 million (a reduction of $1.44 billion from December 31, 2012). During the quarter, selling, general & administrative expenses declined to $93 million from $148 million in the prior-year quarter.

"We are pleased with our progress on earnings this quarter, with Operational EBITDA on track with expectations. Further, our customers are telling us they are impressed with our technologies, and increasingly ready to adopt and apply our solutions to help grow their businesses," said Kodak Chief Executive Officer Antonio M. Perez. "Our strengths in imaging for business markets, including packaging, functional printing, graphic communications and professional services, position us well to move forward on our strategy with increasing momentum."

KODAK REPORTING STRUCTURE

Kodak offers high-quality, cost-effective products and services to the commercial imaging industry. The company's portfolio of products and services meets two distinct needs for its customers: transforming large printing markets with digital offset, digital print and hybrid solutions; and commercializing new solutions for high-growth markets that build on the company's developed technologies and proprietary intellectual property. Kodak operates the Commercial Imaging portfolio as two business segments: Graphics, Entertainment & Commercial Films (GECF) and Digital Printing & Enterprise (DP&E).

Graphics, Entertainment & Commercial Films (GECF): The GECF segment consists of the Graphics and Entertainment Imaging & Commercial Films groups, as well as Kodak's intellectual property and brand licensing activities.

Table 2 – GECF Segment Financial Overview

Millions of dollars	30	3Q 2013 ¹		3Q 2012		rst Nine Months 2013 ²	irst Nine Months 2012
Revenue	$	353	$	404	$	1,110	$ 1,230
Gross Profit		44		52		191	115
Selling, General and Administrative ("SG&A")		56		78		183	251
Research and Development ("R&D")		5		8		14	30
Segment (Loss) Earnings		(17)		(34)		(6)	(166)
Operational EBITDA		13		12		93	(21)
Operational EBITDA excluding fresh-start accounting adjustments		27		12		107	(21)

3Q13 vs. 3Q12 discussion – The decrease in the GECF segment net sales for the third quarter was primarily due to lower demand for digital plates within Graphics, and lower demand for motion picture film within Entertainment Imaging & Commercial Films. Also contributing to the decline was unfavorable price/mix within Graphics due to industry pricing pressures. Partially offsetting these declines was favorable product price/mix within Entertainment Imaging & Commercial Films due to pricing actions impacting the current-year quarter.

The change in the GECF segment gross profit for the third quarter was primarily driven by the Entertainment Imaging & Commercial Films pricing actions, and strong manufacturing productivity and other cost improvements in Graphics. Partially offsetting these improvements was unfavorable product price/mix within Graphics due to industry pricing pressures. Inventory revaluation due to fresh-start accounting had a $12 million negative impact on segment gross profit in the quarter.

In the Graphics business, a large number of customers continued to convert to KODAK SONORA Process Free Plates, which provide cost savings and production efficiencies. SONORA Plates also enable printers to improve their sustainability profile by eliminating the use of processing chemistry.

Digital Printing & Enterprise (DP&E): The DP&E segment consists of four product/service groups, Digital Printing Solutions, Packaging and Functional Printing, Enterprise Services and Solutions, and Consumer Inkjet Systems.

Table 3 – DP&E Segment Financial Overview

Millions of dollars	30	2013 ¹	30	2012	Μ	st Nine onths 013 ²	M	st Nine Ionths 2012
Revenue	$	198	$	231	$	593	$	670
Gross Profit		47		35		158		83
SG&A		45		66		145		204
R&D		23		27		63		100
Segment Loss		(21)		(58)		(50)		(221)
Operational EBITDA		(10)		(35)		(6)		(144)
Operational EBITDA excluding fresh-start accounting adjustments		3		(35)		7		(144)

3Q13 vs. 3Q12 discussion – The decrease in net sales for the DP&E segment for the third quarter was primarily attributable to volume declines within Consumer Inkjet Systems, driven by the discontinuance of printer sales, and lower sales of ink to the existing installed base of printers. Partially offsetting these declines were volume improvements within Digital Printing driven by a larger number of placements of commercial inkjet components.

In the DP&E segment, customers around the world continued to invest in KODAK PROSPER Solutions, including the U.K.'s largest order to date for PROSPER S30 Imprinting Systems.

The increase in the DP&E segment gross profit for the third quarter was primarily due to favorable price/mix within Consumer Inkjet Systems due to a greater proportion of consumer ink sales, and within Digital Printing due to favorable mix due to higher component placements in the current-year period. Partially offsetting these improvements were increased cost of goods sold within Consumer Inkjet Systems due to the revaluation of inventory related to fresh-start accounting. Inventory revaluation due to fresh-start accounting had a $14 million negative impact on segment gross profit in the quarter.

Kodak's 10-Q Report with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission should be referenced for a comprehensive view of the company's financial performance for the third quarter of 2013.

KEY "FRESH-START" AND OTHER ACCOUNTING IMPACTS

In connection with the company's emergence from Chapter 11, Kodak applied the provisions of fresh-start accounting to its financial statements as of September 1, 2013. Upon the application of fresh-start accounting, Kodak allocated its reorganization value to its individual assets based on their estimated fair values. Reorganization value represents the fair value of the successor company's assets before considering liabilities. The excess reorganization value over the fair value of identified tangible and intangible assets is reported as goodwill. The major adjustments in value that have an associated impact in the successor statement of operations occurred as a result of an increase in the net book value of inventory to their estimated fair value, the revaluation of deferred revenues to the fair value of the company's related future performance obligations, and an increase in the net book value of intangible assets and property, plant and equipment reflected in increased depreciation and amortization.

A summary of the impacts of these adjustments on the company's Operational EBITDA follows.

Fresh-Start Impact to September Operational EBITDA⁵

	 Septemb	oer 2013

¹ Results for the third quarter 2013 represent the combined predecessor (July 1, 2013 - August 31, 2013) and successor (September 1, 2013 - September 30, 2013) periods.

² Results for the first nine months of 2013 represent the combined predecessor (January 1, 2013 - August 31, 2013) and successor (September 1, 2013 - September 30, 2013) periods.

³ Includes net income (loss) attributable to noncontrolling interests.

⁵ Adjustments to property, plant and equipment, and intangible assets have no impact on Operational EBITDA.

⁶ Inventory Step-up results in higher cost of goods sold.

⁷ Deferred Revenue was written off due fresh-start accounting, resulting in lower revenue.

This document, which includes any exhibits or appendices attached hereto, includes "forward-looking statements" as that term is defined under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements include statements concerning the Company's plans, objectives, goals, strategies, future events, future revenue or performance, capital expenditures, liquidity, investments, financing needs, business trends, and other information that is not historical information. When used in this document, the words "estimates," "expects," "anticipates," "projects," "plans," "intends," "believes," "predicts", "forecasts," or future or conditional verbs, such as "will," "should," "could," or "may," and variations of such words or similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. All forward-looking statements, including, without limitation, management's examination of historical operating trends and data are based upon the Company's expectations and various assumptions. Future events or results may differ from those anticipated or expressed in these forward-looking statements. Important factors that could cause actual events or results to differ materially from these forward-looking statements include, among others, the risks and uncertainties described in more detail in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2012, and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended March 31, 2013, June 30, 2013, and September 30, 2013, under the headings "Business," "Risk Factors," and/or "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations-Liquidity and Capital Resources," and those described in filings made by the Company with the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York and in other filings the Company makes with the SEC from time to time, as well as the following: the Company's ability to improve and sustain its operating structure, financial results and profitability; the ability of the Company to achieve cash forecasts, financial projections, and projected growth; our ability to achieve the financial and operational results contained in our business plans; the ability of the Company to discontinue or sell certain non-core businesses or operations; the Company's ability to comply with the covenants in its credit facilities; our ability to obtain additional financing if and as needed; the potential adverse effects of the Chapter 11 proceedings on the Company's liquidity, results of operations, brand or business prospects; the Company's ability to fund continued investments, capital needs, restructuring payments and service its debt; the resolution of claims against the Company; our ability to attract and retain key executives, managers and employees; our ability to maintain product reliability and quality and growth in relevant markets; our ability to effectively anticipate technology trends and develop and market new products, solutions and technologies; and the impact of the global economic environment on the Company. There may be other factors that may cause the Company's actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements. All forward-looking statements attributable to the Company or persons acting on its behalf apply only as of the date of this document and are expressly gualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements included in this document. The Company undertakes no obligation to update or revise forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances that arise after the date made or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.

APPENDICES

A. NON-GAAP MEASURES

In this third quarter financial results news release, reference is made to certain non-GAAP financial measures, including "Excluding reorganization items and discontinued operations, the net loss for the third quarter of 2013," "Operational EBITDA," "Operational EBITDA excluding fresh-start accounting adjustments," "GECF Operational EBITDA," "GECF Operational EBITDA excluding fresh-start accounting adjustments," "DP&E Operational EBITDA," and "DP&E Operational EBITDA excluding fresh-start accounting adjustments,"

The company believes that these non-GAAP measures represent important internal measures of performance. Accordingly, where they are provided, it is to give investors the same financial data management uses with the belief that this information will assist the investment community in properly assessing the underlying performance of the company, its financial condition, results of operations and cash flow.

The following reconciliations are provided with respect to terms used in this third quarter financial results news release.
