ITEM 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

Eastman Kodak Company (the Company) realigned its operations effective January 1, 2006, and changed its corporate segment reporting structure beginning with the first quarter of 2006. Additionally, effective January 1, 2006, the Company changed its cost allocation methodologies related to distribution costs, indirect selling, general and administrative expenses, and corporate research and development costs. Further, on January 1, 2006, the Company elected to change its method of costing its U.S. inventories from the LIFO method to the average cost method.

Accounting Principles Generally Accepted in the United States of America require that when a company changes its reportable segments or accounting methodologies, financial statements for prior periods must be reported on a comparable basis and, therefore, restated using the new segment reporting structure or accounting methodologies.

As a result of these requirements, the prior period comparable information for the first quarter of 2005 included in the Company's first quarter 2006 Form 10-Q was reported using: (1) the new reportable segment structure, (2) the changes in cost allocation methodology, and (3) the change in the costing methodology for U.S. inventory from LIFO to average cost. The purpose of this Form 8-K is to present, for informational purposes, the results of operations for the second, third, and fourth quarters of 2005 and full-year 2005 reflective of the changes referred to above.

The results of operations presented in this Form 8-K are also reflective of the Company's change in allocation methodology related to post employment benefit costs for retirees made in the fourth quarter of 2005.

The results of operations presented in this Form 8-K for the three and six months ended June 30, 2005, the three and nine months ended September 30, 2005, and the three months (on a condensed basis) and full-year ended December 31, 2005 will be reported in the Company's Form 10-Q for the second quarter of 2006, the Form 10-Q for the third quarter of 2006, and the 2006 Form 10-K, respectively, when these Forms are filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission in accordance with their respective due dates.
