Item 2.02 Results of Operations and Financial Condition

On October 22, 2015, Eastman Kodak Company (the "Company") issued a press release describing its third quarter 2015 financial results. A copy of the press release is furnished as Exhibit (99.1) to this report.

Within the Company's press release, reference is made to certain non-GAAP financial measures of increase in revenue from the Kodak Prosper Portfolio on a constant currency basis, Operational EBITDA, improvement in Operational EBITDA excluding the impacts of foreign exchange and non-recurring intellectual property revenue, Operating Expenses (Operational Selling, General and Administrative ("SG&A") expenses and Operational Research and Development ("R&D") expenses), improvement in Operating SG&A and Operating R&D expenses, reduction in revenue excluding non-recurring intellectual property revenue, decrease in legacy Consumer Inkjet printer cartridge sales and the impact of foreign exchange, change in revenues on a constant currency basis, and change in Operational EBITDA on a constant currency basis.

The Company believes that these non-GAAP financial measures represent important internal measures of performance as used by the Company's management. Accordingly, they are provided with the belief that this information will assist in properly assessing the underlying performance of the Company. In addition, the Company's management believes that the presentation of the non-GAAP financial measures allows the user of the information to assess the Company's financial results on a more comparable basis. Whenever such information is presented, the Company has complied with the provisions of the rules under Regulation G and Item 2.02 of Form 8-K.

Kodak Reports Third Quarter Financial Results, On Track to Achieve Revenue and Earnings Goals for 2015

ROCHESTER, N.Y.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--October 22, 2015--Eastman Kodak Company (NYSE:KODK) today reported financial results for the third quarter of 2015, ended September 30.

Highlights of the quarter include:

- GAAP net loss of $21 million compared with net earnings of $19 million in Q3 of 2014. Total SG&A and R&D expenses totaled $74 million for Q3 of 2015.
- Key product lines achieved strong sales growth:
 volume for KODAK SONORA Process Free Plates increased by 41%.
 - Volume for KODAK FLEXCEL NX Plates grew by 32%.
 - Revenues from the KODAK PROSPER Portfolio increased by 36% on a constant currency basis or 27% as reported.
 - Revenues for the Software and Solutions Division products and services increased by 22% on a constant currency basis or 11% as reported.
- Q3 Operational EBITDA of $39 million improved by $9 million over the same period in 2014, excluding foreign exchange and non-recurring intellectual property revenues.
- Operating Expenses were $83 million for the quarter, a 15% improvement from the prior-year period on track to achieve a greater than $100 million improvement in 2015.
- The company reiterated 2015 guidance for revenue of $1.8 $2.0 billion and Operational EBITDA of $100 $120 million.
- The cash balance at the end of Q3 was $521 million. The company expects to generate cash in the fourth quarter of 2015 and in 2016, and to end 2015 with a cash balance of $550 $600 million.

"Q3 marked significant progress in Kodak's transformation," said Jeff Clarke, Kodak Chief Executive Officer. "I'm pleased with the strong growth of our strategic product lines. Further, Kodak is on track to improve comparable operational EBITDA by 50% to 80% versus last year."

Revenues in the third quarter of 2015 were $446 million, a decline of 21% from the third quarter of 2014. This decline was in large part due to the adverse impact of currency exchange, as well as expected declines in revenues from legacy consumer inkjet printer cartridge sales and a one-time gain of $52 million from patent licenses in the third quarter of 2014. When adjusted for foreign exchange and these items, revenues decreased 4% year over year.

"We expect to generate cash in Q4 2015 and in 2016, with the majority of restructuring and legacy payments behind us," said John McMullen, Kodak Chief Financial Officer. "We have substantially reduced our cost structure and are in line to achieve a greater than $100 million improvement in 2015. Like many U.S. companies, we are challenged by foreign currency exchange and other macro-economic factors, but we see strong growth opportunities ahead."

Print Systems Division (PSD), Kodak's largest division, had Q3 2015 revenues of $278 million, a 13% decline compared to Q3 of 2014. Operational EBITDA for the quarter was $28 million, down from $31 million in the same period a year ago.

Without the unfavorable impact of foreign exchange rates, PSD's Q3 Operational EBITDA would have increased by $1 million.

Enterprise Inkjet Systems Division (EISD) had Q3 revenues of $39 million, down from $43 million in the same period last year. On a constant currency basis revenues were flat. Our PROSPER business grew by 27% and was offset by declines in KODAK VERSAMARK Printing System sales. Operational EBITDA was negative $4 million, compared with negative $12 million in the third quarter of 2014, for an improvement of $8 million. On a constant currency basis, Operational EBITDA improved by $9 million. Results for this division also reflected investments in a new generation of printer systems which will be unveiled in 2016.

Micro 3D Printing and Packaging Division (MPPD) had Q3 revenues of $32 million, flat with the same period a year ago. Operational EBITDA improved on a constant currency basis to $6 million from $1 million in Q3 2014, driven by the continued growth of the KODAK FLEXCEL NX System and the gain from the termination of the relationship with UniPixel. FLEXCEL NX Plate volume increased by 32% year over year, and the installed base is now over 450 FLEXCEL NX CTPs.

Software and Solutions Division (SSD) had a strong quarter. Q3 revenues were $30 million, up 11% from $27 million in the same period last year. Operational EBITDA doubled from $1 million to $2 million.

A highlight of the quarter was the completion of a $5 million contract to produce ballots for the presidential election in Argentina.

Consumer and Film Division (CFD) had revenues of $64 million, down from $92 million in Q3 of 2014. Operational EBITDA declined from $24 million to $12 million. These declines were expected and built into the plan for the year with anticipated continued reduction in revenues and earnings from the consumer inkjet printer cartridge business. For the third quarter in a row, film recorded a profitable quarter on an Operational EBITDA before corporate cost basis. We are continuing to find new opportunities in brand licensing. During Q3, we signed deals with several new partners including manufacturers of LED lighting and flash drives.

Kodak's Intellectual Property Solutions Division (IPSD) had no revenues in Q3 and Operational EBITDA of negative $4 million. In the third quarter of 2014, this division recorded $52 million of revenue from the license of patents. Kodak inventions ranging from antimicrobial particles to unique material solutions for 3D printing to light-blocking materials will create new growth opportunities.

The highlight of the quarter for the Eastman Business Park Division (EBP) was news that EBP will be the manufacturing site for a Federal and New York State supported hub for the development of Photonics technologies.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-looking Statements

This press release includes "forward-looking statements" as that term is defined under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements include statements concerning Kodak's plans, objectives, goals, strategies, future events, future revenue or performance, capital expenditures, liquidity, investments, financing needs, business trends, and other information that is not historical information. When used in this document, the words "estimates," "expects," "anticipates," "plans," "intends," "believes," "predicts," "forecasts," "strategy," "continues," "goals," "targets" or future or conditional verbs, such as "will," "should," "could," or "may," and variations of such words or similar expressions, as well as statements that do not relate strictly to historical or current facts, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. All forward-looking statements, including, without limitation, management's examination of historical operating trends and data, are based upon Kodak's expectations and various assumptions. Future events or results may differ from those anticipated or expressed in these forward-looking statements. Important factors that could cause actual events or results to differ materially from these forward-looking statements include, among others, the risks and uncertainties described in more detail in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014, under the headings "Business," "Risk Factors," "Legal Proceedings" and/or "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations-Liquidity and Capital Resources", in the corresponding sections of the report on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended March 31, 2015, June 30, 2015, and September 30, 2015, and in other filings the Company makes with the SEC from time to time, as well as the following: Kodak's ability to improve and sustain its operating structure, financial results and profitability; the ability of Kodak to achieve cash forecasts, financial projections, and projected growth; Kodak's ability to achieve the financial and operational results contained in its business plans; Kodak's ability to discontinue, sell or spin-off certain non-core businesses or operations, or otherwise monetize assets; Kodak's ability to comply with the covenants in its credit facilities; Kodak's ability to obtain additional financing if and as needed; the potential adverse effects of the concluded Chapter 11 proceedings on Kodak's brand or business prospects; Kodak's ability to fund continued investments, capital needs and restructuring payments and service its debt; changes in foreign currency exchange rates, commodity prices and interest rates; the resolution of claims against Kodak; Kodak's ability to attract and retain key executives, managers and employees; Kodak's ability to maintain product reliability and quality and growth in relevant markets; Kodak's ability to effectively anticipate technology trends and develop and market new products, solutions and technologies; and the impact of the global economic environment on Kodak.

A. NON-GAAP MEASURES

In this third quarter financial results news release, reference is made to certain non-GAAP financial measures of increase in revenue from the Kodak Prosper Portfolio on a constant currency basis, Operational EBITDA, improvement in Operational EBITDA excluding the impacts of foreign exchange and non-recurring intellectual property revenue, Operating Expenses (Operational Selling, General and Administrative ("SG&A") expenses and Operational Research and Development ("R&D") expenses), improvement in Operating SG&A and Operating R&D expenses, reduction in revenue excluding non-recurring intellectual property revenue, decrease in legacy Consumer Inkjet printer cartridge sales and the impact of foreign exchange, change in revenues on a constant currency basis, and change in Operational EBITDA on a constant currency basis.

The Company believes that these non-GAAP measures represent important internal measures of performance. Accordingly, where they are provided, it is to give investors the same financial data management uses with the belief that this information will assist the investment community in properly assessing the underlying performance of the company, its financial condition, results of operations and cash flow.

The following reconciliations are provided with respect to terms used in this third quarter financial results news release.

(1) Consulting and other costs are primarily related to professional services provided for corporate strategic initiatives in the current year periods. The prior year periods primarily represent the cost of AlixPartners filling interim executive positions which are not captured within "Reorganization items, net" as well as consulting services provided by former executives during transitional periods.

(2) Composed of interest cost, expected return on plan assets, amortization of actuarial gains and losses and curtailments and settlement components of pension and other postretirement benefit expenses.

(3) The impact of foreign exchange represents the impact of using average foreign exchange rates for the three months ended September 30, 2014 rather than the actual exchange rates in effect for the three months ended September 30, 2015.

(4) Consists of third party costs such as security, maintenance, and utilities required to maintain land and buildings in certain locations not used in any Kodak operations.

(5) In the third quarter of 2015 a $3 million gain was recognized related to assets that were acquired for no monetary consideration as a part of the termination of the relationship with UniPixel. The gain was reported in Other operating income (expense), net in the Consolidated Statement of Operations. Other operating income (expense), net is typically excluded from the segment measure. However, this particular gain was included in the Micro 3D Printing and Packaging segment's earnings for the third quarter of 2015.

(6) The impact of foreign exchange represents the impact to 2015 and 2014 revenues using budgeted rates of exchange rather than the actual exchange rates in effect for the three months ended September 30, 2015 and 2014, respectively.
