Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

Pursuant to Item 7.01 of Form 8-K, Eastman Kodak Company (the “Company”) is furnishing slides from a Public Lender Presentation (the “Lender Presentation”) and a Business Segment Review (the “Business Segment Review” and, together with the Lender Presentation, the “Presentations”) which were released by the Company’s management on January 23, 2012 to potential lenders in connection with the syndication of the facilities under the Company’s Debtor-In-Possession Credit Agreement dated as of January 20, 2012. Attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this report are the slides from the Lender Presentation and attached as Exhibit 99.2 to this report are the slides from the Business Segment Review.

On January 23, 2012, the Company issued a press release (the “Press Release”) announcing that it had posted the Presentations on the Investor Relations section of its Company website (www.kodak.com) and its reorganizational information website (www.kodaktransforms.com). A copy of the Press Release is attached as Exhibit 99.3 and, with respect to the portion relating to the Presentations, is incorporated by reference in this Item 7.01.

This information, Exhibit 99.1, Exhibit 99.2 and Exhibit 99.3 (with respect to the portion related to the Presentations) are being furnished pursuant to Item 7.01 of Form 8-K and shall not be deemed to be “filed” for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange Act”) or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section, nor shall they be deemed to be incorporated by reference in any filing under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Exchange Act. This information, Exhibit 99.1, Exhibit 99.2 and Exhibit 99.3 (with respect to the portion related to the Presentations) will not be deemed an admission as to the materiality of any information herein, in Exhibit 99.1, in Exhibit 99.2, nor in Exhibit 99.3 (with respect to the portion related to the Presentations).

Item 8.01. Other Events.

Among other things, the slides in the Lender Presentation reflect the retention of James A. Mesterharm of AlixPartners LLP as Chief Restructuring Officer as of January 23, 2012, replacing Dominic DiNapoli in that role. The scope of the Chief Restructuring Officer’s duties, and his reporting duties, will not change in connection with Mr. Mesterharm’s appointment. The change does not reflect any disagreement or difference of opinion between Mr. DiNapoli and the Company. AlixPartners will be the Company’s restructuring adviser during the reorganization process, leveraging AlixPartners’ knowledge of the Company based on its preexisting operational enhancement advisory engagement with the Company over the past several months.

The portion of the Press Release relating to the retention of Mr. Mesterharm and AlixPartners is incorporated by reference in this Item 8.01.

This report on Form 8-K, including the exhibits attached hereto, includes “forward-looking statements” as that term is defined under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements include statements concerning the Company’s plans, objectives, goals, strategies, future events, future revenue or performance, liquidity, cash flows, capital expenditures, financing needs, plans or business trends, and other information that is not historical information. When used in this report on Form 8-K, including the exhibit attached hereto, the words “estimates,” “expects,” “anticipates,” “projects,” “plans,” “intends,” “believes,” “forecasts,” or future or conditional verbs, such as “will,” “should,” “could,” or “may,” and variations of such words or similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. All forward-looking statements, including, without limitation, management’s examination of historical operating trends and data are based upon the Company’s expectations and various assumptions. Future events or results may differ from those anticipated or expressed in these forward-looking statements. Important factors that could cause actual events or results to differ materially from these forward-looking statements include, among others, the risks and uncertainties described under the heading “Risk Factors” in the Company’s most recent annual report on Form 10-K under Item 1A of Part 1, in the Company’s most recent quarterly report on Form 10-Q under Item 1A of Part II and those described in filings made by the Company with the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York and in other filings the Company makes with the SEC from time to time, as well as the following: the ability of the Company to continue as a going concern, the Company’s ability to obtain Bankruptcy Court approval with respect to motions in the chapter 11 cases, the ability of the Company and its subsidiaries to prosecute, develop and consummate one or more plans of reorganization with respect to the chapter 11 cases, Bankruptcy Court rulings in the chapter 11 cases and the outcome of the cases in general, the length of time the Company will operate under the chapter 11 cases, risks associated with third party motions in the chapter 11 cases, which may interfere with the Company's ability to develop and consummate one or more plans of reorganization once such plans are developed, the potential adverse effects of the chapter 11 proceedings on the Company's liquidity, results of operations, brand or business prospects, the ability to execute the Company's business and restructuring plan, increased legal costs related to the chapter 11 bankruptcy filing and other litigation, our ability to raise sufficient proceeds from the sale of non-core assets and the potential sale of our digital imaging patent portfolios within our plan, the Company's ability to generate or raise cash and maintain a cash balance sufficient to fund continued investments, capital needs, restructuring payments and service its debt, the Company's ability to maintain contracts that are critical to its operation, to obtain and maintain normal terms with customers, suppliers and service providers, to maintain product reliability and quality, to effectively anticipate technology trends and develop and market new products, to retain key executives, managers and employees, our ability to successfully license and enforce our intellectual property rights and the ability of the Company's non-US subsidiaries to continue to operate their businesses in the normal course and without court supervision. There may be other factors that may cause the Company's actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements. All forward-looking statements attributable to the Company or persons acting on its behalf apply only as of the date of this report on Form 8-K, and the date of the exhibit attached hereto, and are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements included in this report. The Company undertakes no obligation to update or revise forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances that arise after the date made or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.

Public Lender Presentation

January 2012

This presentation has been prepared by Eastman Kodak Company (the “Company”). It contains general information about the Company’s activities as at the date of the presentation. It is information given in summary form and does not purport to be complete.

This presentation is not, and nothing in it should be construed as, an offer, invitation or recommendation in respect of the facilities or any of the Company’s securities, or an offer, invitation or recommendation to sell, or a solicitation of an offer to buy, the facilities or any of the Company’s securities in any jurisdiction. Neither this document nor anything in it shall form the basis of any contract or commitment. This presentation is not intended to be relied upon as advice to investors or potential investors and does not take into account the investment objectives, financial situation or needs of any investor. All investors should consider such factors in consultation with a professional advisor of their choosing when deciding if an investment is appropriate.

The Company has prepared this presentation based on information available to it, including information derived from public sources that have not been independently verified. No representation or warranty, express or implied, is provided in relation to the fairness, accuracy, correctness, completeness or reliability of the information, opinions or conclusions expressed herein.

The 2011 financial information included in this presentation is preliminary, unaudited and subject to revision upon completion of the Company’s closing and audit processes.

All references to dollars are to United States currency unless otherwise stated.

This presentation includes forward-looking statements, as that term is defined under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements include statements concerning the Company's plans, objectives, goals, strategies, future events, future revenue or performance, liquidity, cash flows, capital expenditures, financing needs, plans or business trends, and other information that is not historical information. When used in this presentation, the words "estimates," "expects," "anticipates," "projects," "plans," "intends," "believes," "forecasts," or future or conditional verbs, such as "will," "should," "could," or "may," and variations of such words or similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. All forward-looking statements, including, without limitation, management's examination of historical operating trends and data are based upon the Company's expectations and various assumptions. Future events or results may differ from those anticipated or expressed in these forward-looking statements. Important factors that could cause actual events or results to differ materially from these forward-looking statements include, among others, the risks and uncertainties described under the heading "Risk Factors" in the Company's most recent annual report on Form 10-K under Item 1A of Part 1, in the Company's most recent quarterly report on Form 10-Q under Item 1A of Part II and those described in filings made by the Company with the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York and in other filings the Company makes with the Securities & Exchange Commission from time to time, as well as the following: the ability of the Company to continue as a going concern, the Company's ability to obtain Bankruptcy Court approval with respect to motions in the chapter 11 cases, the ability of the Company and its subsidiaries to prosecute, develop and consummate one or more plans of reorganization with respect to the chapter 11 cases, Bankruptcy Court rulings in the chapter 11 cases and the outcome of the cases in general, the length of time the Company will operate under the chapter 11 cases, risks associated with third party motions in the chapter 11 cases, which may interfere with the Company's ability to develop and consummate one or more plans of reorganization once such plans are developed, the potential adverse effects of the chapter 11 proceedings on the Company's liquidity, results of operations, brand or business prospects, the ability to execute the Company's business and restructuring plan, increased legal costs related to the chapter 11 bankruptcy filing and other litigation, our ability to raise sufficient proceeds from the sale of non-core assets and the potential sale of our digital imaging patent portfolios within our plan, the Company's ability to generate or raise cash and maintain a cash balance sufficient to fund continued investments, capital needs, restructuring payments and service its debt; the Company's ability to maintain contracts that are critical to its operation, to obtain and maintain normal terms with customers, suppliers and service providers, to maintain product reliability and quality, to effectively anticipate technology trends and develop and market new products, to retain key executives, managers and employees, our ability to successfully license and enforce our intellectual property rights and the ability of the Company's non-US subsidiaries to continue to operate their businesses in the normal course and without court supervision. There may be other factors that may cause the Company's actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements. All forward-looking statements attributable to the Company or persons acting on its behalf apply only as of the date of this presentation, and are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements included in this presentation. The Company undertakes no obligation to update or revise forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances that arise after the date made or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.

- Eastman Kodak Company (the “Company” or “Kodak”) is a worldwide leader in imaging technology, helping consumers, businesses and creative professionals unleash the power of pictures and printing to enrich their lives
- The Company recently reorganized and simplified its operating structure into two reporting lines, Commercial and Consumer
 - The Company has identified specific businesses in transformation which will help improve its financial profile
 - For Kodak’s fiscal year ended 2011, the Company had revenues of ~$6B
- Over the last several years the Company has been executing a plan to transform from a traditional film business to a profitable and sustainable digital company but has experienced certain hurdles including:
 - Legacy and restructuring costs from the Company’s traditional businesses
 - More rapid decline than expected in traditional businesses and challenges reducing corporate costs as quickly
 - Investment required to grow new digital businesses
 - Delays in IP strategy used to fund investments
- On January 19, 2012, Kodak and its U.S. subsidiaries filed for bankruptcy protection under Chapter 11 in New York
- In connection with the filing, Kodak is raising up to $950 million of debtor-in-possession credit facilities (the “DIP Facilities”)
 - A $250 million senior secured asset-based revolving credit facility and an up to $700 million senior secured term loan
 - Proceeds from the DIP Facilities will be used to repay the Company’s existing revolver, and for working capital and general corporate purposes during the Chapter 11 case
- Key objectives of Kodak’s business reorganization plan are as follows:
 - Bolster liquidity in the U.S. and abroad
 - Monetize non-strategic intellectual property
 - Fairly resolve legacy liabilities
 - Focus on its most valuable business lines
- Kodak has hired James A. Mesterharm of AlixPartners as Chief Restructuring Officer to assist in the implementation and execution of the Company’s restructuring plan

Note: The 2011 financial information included in this presentation is preliminary, unaudited and subject to revision upon completion of the Company’s closing and audit processes.

Business Segment Review

This presentation has been prepared by Eastman Kodak Company (the “Company”). It contains general information about the Company’s activities as at the date of the presentation. It is information given in summary form and does not purport to be complete.

This presentation is not, and nothing in it should be construed as, an offer, invitation or recommendation in respect of the facilities or any of the Company’s securities, or an offer, invitation or recommendation to sell, or a solicitation of an offer to buy, the facilities or any of the Company’s securities in any jurisdiction. Neither this document nor anything in it shall form the basis of any contract or commitment. This presentation is not intended to be relied upon as advice to investors or potential investors and does not take into account the investment objectives, financial situation or needs of any investor. All investors should consider such factors in consultation with a professional advisor of their choosing when deciding if an investment is appropriate.

The Company has prepared this presentation based on information available to it, including information derived from public sources that have not been independently verified. No representation or warranty, express or implied, is provided in relation to the fairness, accuracy, correctness, completeness or reliability of the information, opinions or conclusions expressed herein.

The 2011 financial information included in this presentation is preliminary, unaudited and subject to revision upon completion of the Company’s closing and audit processes.

All references to dollars are to United States currency unless otherwise stated.

This presentation includes forward-looking statements, as that term is defined under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements include statements concerning the Company's plans, objectives, goals, strategies, future events, future revenue or performance, liquidity, cash flows, capital expenditures, financing needs, plans or business trends, and other information that is not historical information. When used in this presentation, the words "estimates," "expects," "anticipates," "projects," "plans," "intends," "believes," "forecasts," or future or conditional verbs, such as "will," "should," "could," or "may," and variations of such words or similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. All forward-looking statements, including, without limitation, management's examination of historical operating trends and data are based upon the Company's expectations and various assumptions. Future events or results may differ from those anticipated or expressed in these forward-looking statements. Important factors that could cause actual events or results to differ materially from these forward-looking statements include, among others, the risks and uncertainties described under the heading "Risk Factors" in the Company's most recent annual report on Form 10-K under Item 1A of Part 1, in the Company's most recent quarterly report on Form 10-Q under Item 1A of Part II and those described in filings made by the Company with the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York and in other filings the Company makes with the Securities & Exchange Commission from time to time, as well as the following: the ability of the Company to continue as a going concern, the Company's ability to obtain Bankruptcy Court approval with respect to motions in the chapter 11 cases, the ability of the Company and its subsidiaries to prosecute, develop and consummate one or more plans of reorganization with respect to the chapter 11 cases, Bankruptcy Court rulings in the chapter 11 cases and the outcome of the cases in general, the length of time the Company will operate under the chapter 11 cases, risks associated with third party motions in the chapter 11 cases, which may interfere with the Company's ability to develop and consummate one or more plans of reorganization once such plans are developed, the potential adverse effects of the chapter 11 proceedings on the Company's liquidity, results of operations, brand or business prospects, the ability to execute the Company's business and restructuring plan, increased legal costs related to the chapter 11 bankruptcy filing and other litigation, our ability to raise sufficient proceeds from the sale of non-core assets and the potential sale of our digital imaging patent portfolios within our plan, the Company's ability to generate or raise cash and maintain a cash balance sufficient to fund continued investments, capital needs, restructuring payments and service its debt; the Company's ability to maintain contracts that are critical to its operation, to obtain and maintain normal terms with customers, suppliers and service providers, to maintain product reliability and quality, to effectively anticipate technology trends and develop and market new products, to retain key executives, managers and employees, our ability to successfully license and enforce our intellectual property rights and the ability of the Company's non-US subsidiaries to continue to operate their businesses in the normal course and without court supervision. There may be other factors that may cause the Company's actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements. All forward-looking statements attributable to the Company or persons acting on its behalf apply only as of the date of this presentation, and are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements included in this presentation. The Company undertakes no obligation to update or revise forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances that arise after the date made or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.

EASTMAN KODAK COMPANY FILES LENDER PRESENTATION IN CONNECTION WITH SYNDICATION OF DIP FINANCING

ROCHESTER, NY January 23, 2012 – Eastman Kodak Company (the “Company”) (OTB: EKDKQ.PK) today said that it has posted on its Company website and its reorganization information website slides from a Public Lender Presentation (the “Lender Presentation”) in connection with the syndication to potential lenders of its previously-announced Debtor-In-Possession Credit Agreement dated as of January 20, 2012. The slides can be found in the Investor Relations section of www.kodak.com, as well as www.kodaktransforms.com. The slides will also be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission as an Exhibit to a Form 8-K.

Among other things, the slides reflect the retention of James A. Mesterharm of AlixPartners LLP as Chief Restructuring Officer as of January 23, 2012, replacing Dominic DiNapoli in that role. The scope of the Chief Restructuring Officer’s duties, and his reporting duties, will not change in connection with Mr. Mesterharm’s appointment. The change does not reflect any disagreement or difference of opinion between Mr. DiNapoli and the Company. AlixPartners will be the Company’s restructuring adviser during the reorganization process, leveraging AlixPartners’ knowledge of the Company based on its preexisting operational enhancement advisory engagement with the Company over the past several months. FTI Consulting, Inc. is expected to continue to work on certain post-petition matters alongside AlixPartners.

The Company thanks Mr. DiNapoli for his contribution in helping Kodak effectively implement its Chapter 11 filing.

The Company also announced today that it will not hold a conference call with the investment community at the time of its fourth quarter earnings announcement.
